We are confident that we succeed in showing you a comprehensive picture that will arouse your interest and will help us find those points of connection through which we will realize mutually beneficial deals, further strengthen our partnership and build new ones.

Our company started out in the autumn of 1989, worked as a private enterprise in the beginning then went on to become a limited partnership in 1994. In 2003 we transformed into a limited liability company. Finally, in 2015 we developed into Ajánlak System Ltd.

In our general contracts we place the expectations of the construction market and complex services at the forefront of our activities. Our customers reward our efforts and as a result our assignments, in a large part, cover everything from preparatory work through design to complete implementations.

Our company, engaged in constructing family homes, condominiums, malls, sports, industrial and commercial facilities, and office buildings and also in renovating historical buildings, is now well-known in the leading circles of domestic construction companies due to the owners' efforts. We hope to be known soon by foreign investors as well.

We are also trying to occupy a prominent place in the real estate market and to maximally satisfy customers needs by realizing, locating and offering such real estate where the price-value ratio is unbeatable in the domestic market and where the legal background is completely sound. In addition, our company also aims to cater for lower volume residential

When establishing fair, predictable partnerships we prefer the ones that are concerted and built on each other's possibilities. We recommend a personal meeting with the initiative of creating an opportunity where joint ideas may emerge which then can be translated into reality to everyone's satisfaction.
